

Your invitation to

Global Employment Law Forum

Flexibility in the Workplace

You are invited to join us for an informative and interactive debate during which our panel of experts, drawn from around the world, will discuss some of the global developments in employment flexibility, in particular the increasing trend in many countries towards engaging workers in new and innovative ways which seek to challenge the traditional "employment" models. Made up exclusively of specialist employment lawyers from Multilaw firms around the globe, our esteemed panel will include speakers from Europe, the Middle East and the US alongside a local Thai expert.

Flexibility in the Workplace

- ⚡ The gig economy
Exploring the different ways in which laws around the world are developing to cope with the emerging trend towards non-traditional forms of work
- ⚡ Short term, agency and temporary employees
- ⚡ Homeworkers and mobile workers
- ⚡ Working time, pay and vacation rights

This complimentary event is aimed at HR Directors, in-house Counsel and other senior executives with responsibility for managing an international workforce. Attendees are invited to join us after the event for refreshments and a chance to chat informally with members of the panel and other specialist employment lawyers from the Multilaw Employment Group.
