After three turbulent years of Brexit negotiations, the UK is finally due to leave the European Union on 31 January 2020. With many businesses operating in the UK and the EU27, what is the potential impact of Brexit on their business and workforce?

You are invited to join us for an informative and interactive debate exploring the impact of Brexit on workplaces, and staff generally. Our panel of employment and immigration experts is drawn from all sides of the EU divide:

Patrick Walshe - Partner - Phil Lee - Republic of Ireland
Claudine Gemeiner - Partner - Heussen Rechtsanwaltsgeellschaft mbH - Germany
Jan Cunningham - Partner - Millar McCall Wylie LLP - UK - Northern Ireland
Tijen Ahmet - Legal Director - Shakespeare Martineau - UK - England
Jon Heuvel - Partner - Shakespeare Martineau - UK - England

Agenda

The panel will debate a number of issues on this topic, such as:

- The impact on recruitment processes
- Posting workers to other jurisdictions
- Cross-jurisdictional recognition of professional qualifications
- Changes to immigration rules and procedures
- Implications for social security contributions and pension schemes

This complimentary event is aimed at HR Directors, in-house Counsel, business owners and senior executives with responsibility for managing an international workforce.

Attendees are invited to stay afterwards to chat to members of the panel, and to join us for drinks and networking with others.
