

HEUSSEN: Award of the Benno Heussen Prize to Prof. Matthias Kilian

The working group "Kanzleimanagement" in the German Bar Association has awarded the Benno Heussen Prize to Cologne law professor Dr. Matthias Kilian this year. The award ceremony took place on 7 June 2018 in Mannheim as part of the German Lawyers' Day 2018.

Prize winner Prof. Dr. Kilian has been Director of the Soldan Institute and Professor at the University of Cologne for many years. Within the scope of his activities, Kilian deals with the internal structures of the legal profession, developments on the legal services market as well as professional law issues. "Prof. Dr. Matthias Kilian's research has rendered outstanding services to the successful and future-oriented management of law firms," emphasized Soldan Managing Director René Dreske, who was a member of the jury at the award ceremony.

The Benno Heussen Prize is awarded by the working group "Kanzleimanagement" in the German Bar Association to individuals who have made a significant contribution to the presentation and solution of problems in the field of the management of law firms, primarily through advice and action, practical activity and/or lectures as well as publications. The prize was awarded for the fourth time this year

About the Prof. Dr. Benno Heussen Prize

In recognition of his services, the prize was named after the lawyer Prof. Dr. Benno Heussen, the name partner of the law firm HEUSSEN Rechtsanwälte mbH.
