Enthusiastic Koningsdag 2015 in Munich

Casual networking the Dutch way characterized the festivities for this year's Koningsdag in the great auditorium of the Sofitel Munich Bayerpost, one of the city's finest hotels. Following longstanding tradition, Koningsdag, or King's Day, is a national holiday in the Netherlands celebrating the King's birthday. For the Dutch, it marks a day of celebration outside their native country too.

Just how strong the networking ties between Germany and the Netherlands are was underscored by the Consul General of the Netherlands in Munich, Peter Vermeij, in his speech before more than 400 invited guests from the business, political and cultural arenas. He pointed out that this reception was no less than the 25th reception marking King's Day in Munich. Bavaria's Minister for European Affairs, Beate Merk offered warm congratulations to the Netherlands on Koningsdag, "We are proud of the close and cordial relations between our two countries. 9,000 Dutch citizens have made Bavaria their second home. Our economic cooperation remains equally close. Our countries stand for stability, economic growth and a strong future in Europe. Together, we can achieve a great deal!"

Also this year, HEUSSEN Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH was once again one of the sponsors of the event. HEUSSEN maintains deep business relationships to the Netherlands, especially within the scope of collaboration with Amsterdam-based HEUSSEN B.V. in Amsterdam and HEUSSEN's membership in the German-Dutch business forum.
