

HEUSSEN: New Talent for Construction & Real Estate Law Practice Group in Stuttgart

Nov. 22nd, 2016: Attorney Roland Kahabka is set to join the HEUSSEN corporate law firm as partner at the firm's Stuttgart Office on January 1st, 2017. A specialized attorney for construction and architectural law, Mr. Kahabka, 55, brings extensive experience in private building law, land law, architectural law and in construction litigation to the table. Add to that his special expertise in cases intersecting with real estate law, particularly those pertaining to real estate transactions. This makes Roland Kahabka, who had previously partnered with the Stuttgart law firm Diem & Partner, an excellent choice as new legal talent for HEUSSEN's Construction & Real Estate Law Practice Group at its Stuttgart location.

Says Christoph Hamm, Managing Director at HEUSSEN, "Consulting in construction & real estate law is of great importance to us at our Stuttgart office too. For that reason, we're very pleased to see a highly experienced and esteemed colleague such as Roland Kahabka joining our firm. We have full faith in Mr. Kahabka's ability to bring new ideas to our Construction & Real Estate Law Practice Group and to work with its team members to successfully expand our real estate law portfolio at our Stuttgart office."

Adds Roland Kahabka, "HEUSSEN is a renowned law firm with an excellent reputation, particularly in the real estate and construction law business.

I look forward to applying my law expertise at the Stuttgart office of HEUSSEN and contributing to the further growth of this firm's construction and real estate law practice."

HEUSSEN Stuttgart currently has 17 legal experts covering all relevant fields of business law, enabling them to offer their mostly mid-sized clients full-range legal services under one roof.
