

Prof. Dr. Renate Dendorfer appointed as ABA Vice Chair

Prof. Dr. Renate Dendorfer was appointed Vice Chair of the Section of International Law of the American Bar Association (ABA) for at least one year with assignment to the Private International Law Committee.

The ABA is the leading lawyers association of the USA and with worldwide more than 400.000 members it is the largest professional association with membership solely on a voluntary basis. The Committees are the most important controlling bodies of the organization. The ABA Section of International Law is responsible for the exchange of experiences and knowledge in the area of international and comparative law as well as for the establishment of mutual understanding of different legal systems, legal cultures and of a international lawyers network.

“For me, this position is an exciting challenge and a marvelous acknowledgment of my international focus in my practice and teachings“, says Renate Dendorfer. “We are very proud on Prof. Dendorfer and view her strong position at the ABA as further step in the international orientation of the law firm“, adds Christoph Hamm, business manager at HEUSSEN Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH.

Prof. Dr. Dendorfer is lawyer and partner at the Munich office of HEUSSEN Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft and specializes in corporate and labor law as well as international business law, arbitration and mediation. She teaches as professor for business law, international law and dispute resolution at the Cooperative State University in Ravensburg and was appointed honorary professor at the EBS University for Business and Law with focus on dispute resolution and arbitration.

HEUSSEN Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH is among the 50 largest corporate law firms in Germany with offices in Munich, Berlin, Frankfurt and Stuttgart. Additionally, the firm has representative offices in Brussels and New York as well as associated law firms in Amsterdam (HEUSSEN B.V.) and Rome (HEUSSEN Italia Studio Legale e Tributario).
