

HEUSSEN expands Berlin office

[Munich/ Berlin, July 2011] On July 1st 2011 lawyer and notary Dr. Thomas Miller joined HEUSSEN Rechtsanwalts-gesellschaft mbH. Until recently he was partner at KROHN in Hamburg and Berlin. Dr. Miller will work at HEUSSEN's Berlin office, which just moved to larger office premises in Joachimstaler Straße/ Ecke Kurfürstendamm.

His main focus lies in the area of pharmaceutical distribution. He advises and represents pharmacies in proceedings concerning competition and pharmaceutical law as well as professional regulations. Dr. Miller is experienced with the conception, structuring and consultation of pharmacies, mail-order pharmacies as well as the drafting of hospital and (special care) home utility supply contracts. He also advises on tying arrangements regarding distribution and contracts with health insurance companies. In the area of individual supply of pharmaceuticals for patients (blister packaging) he represented clients in decisive court decisions.

Furthermore, 52 year- old Dr. Miller advises clients with regard to import and export of pharmaceuticals and on the interface of pharmaceuticals and dietary supplements.

Dr. Miller will join Dr. J. Wilfried Kügel who has been setting up the HEUSSEN practice group „Healthcare and Life Science“ since 2011 in Stuttgart.

The main focus of his notary's office lies on real estate and corporate law. In the past years he mainly certificated for foreign investors, also in English and French.

Dr. Thomas Miller is assistant lecturer at the SRH-Hochschule in Berlin for international contract and corporate law as well as intellectual property and has excellent international contacts. He is member of the managing committee of the working group "International Legal Relations" of the DAV (German lawyers association) and honorary vice president of the AIJA (Association Internationale des Jeunes Avocats).

"HEUSSEN has great development potentialities. I want to contribute to this development with my know-how, my experience and my contacts. I am looking forward to this collaboration", says Dr. Thomas Miller. HEUSSEN's business manager Christoph Hamm adds: „ we are happy that we could win over Dr. Miller. With him and Klaus-Uwe Benneter, our Berlin office now has two notaries, which enables us to offer comprehensive notarial support at any time.
